

Delivering a GOOD Life for every Victorian

2018 VCOSS Election Summit
Wednesday 13 June 2018
Arts Centre Melbourne

Delivering a good life for all Victorians, regardless of their background or individual circumstances, must be on the agenda for the 2018 State Election, and beyond.

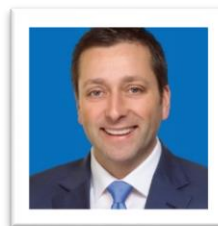

Held 'under the spire' at the iconic Arts Centre Melbourne, the VCOSS Summit will bring together leaders, strategic thinkers and workers in the community sector, government, business, and the media to explore a vision for a new Victoria – where everyone can live a good life defined by a decent living wage, a place to call home, equal opportunity, security, wellbeing and a sense of belonging.

Political, international, interstate and local speakers will present and debate key policy issues for the community sector including family violence, youth justice, homelessness and Aboriginal self-determination; how to operate from a base of shared-values; the art of persuasion, and the leadership we need for the future.

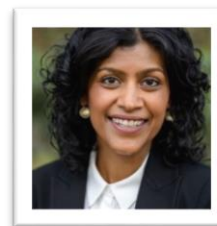

Featuring:

The Hon. Daniel
Andrews MP,
Premier of Victoria

Matthew Guy MP,
Leader of the Opposition

Dr Samantha
Ratnam, Leader of the Victorian Greens

Plus many more speakers to be announced.
